24th June 2022

Dear Parents,

It has been another wonderful week in school. We successfully hosted the Borough Basketball tournament on Monday. Our team competed well against stiff competition and I was very pleased with the way in which the rest of the school adapted to break time and lunchtime on the school field. Well done to all involved!

Our faith team attended the Picnic and Praise event on Thursday at Aylesford Priory. This special event for schools across the Diocese focused on the theme of 'unity'. Huge thanks to Mrs Malone and Linda from the Catechist team who accompanied the children for the day. A super time was had by one and all.

I am aware that there are a number of pieces of important information that have come out this week regarding the following events;

- School uniform and PE kit update - [children from Reception to Y6 bringing home a copy today]
- Parent consultations for Years 1-5 - (please sign up on the school School Cloud link sent yesterday)
- School Fair rescheduled by FOST to 10th July
- Award Winning Author, Banji Alexander in School on Thursday 30th June [Children still have time to buy a signed copy of his book for £10 & join a workshop on the day - see letter sent out on 14th June]

Finally, today is the Feast Day of the Sacred Heart, which celebrates Christ's divine love for the whole of humanity. Luke's Gospel this weekend calls us all to place our hand firmly on God's 'plough' and prepare the fields for God's love to grow. To choose the path of God and reject the dead ends in our lives. Something to think on and consider over the course of the coming days..

Have a great weekend
